RECOMMENDATION.

The Scripture Catechism of the Rev. Matthew Henry, a new edition of which is now presented to the Christian Public, is a work calculated to be universally useful in increasing the knowledge and confirming the faith of all who will study it with diligence and prayer. Few persons who ever lived, could have produced such a work; if the numerous questions contained in it had been set down without answers, scarcely any one would have conceived it possible to furnish pertinent answers to the whole of them, in the precise words of Holy Scripture. Indeed, I have never looked into this Catechism without feeling an agreeable surprise, in observing the perfection of Scriptural knowledge which it manifests. Catechisms possess no authority but what they derive from the Bible; how important then is it, that those who adopt the Westminster Shorter Catechism, should be acquainted with the proof-texts, on which every doctrine rests? And where can we find these proofs so judiciously arranged, and so pertinently applied, as in this Scripture Catechism? I do therefore cordially recommend it to all pastors, parents, and others engaged in giving religious instruction to the rising generation.

THE AMERICAN EDITOR'S PREFACE.

The assertion in the title page, that this is the first complete American Edition of the venerable Mr. Henry's Scripture Catechism, may, perhaps, be called in question, by some who may have seen a small volume, published in the year 1835, by Messrs. Griffin & Co., of New York, under the title of "The Catechism of the Westminster Divines; with Scriptural questions and answers, by the Rev. Matthew Henry, D.D., Author of the commentary on the Bible." But, whoever will take the trouble of comparing that volume, with the "Scripture Catechism" of Mr. Henry as published in his "Miscellaneous Works," will find that the volume published by Messrs. Griffin & Co., is nothing more than a meagre collection of extracts from what was originally published by the venerable author.

In this edition, the typographical errors, found in the London Edition, are carefully corrected. The "Shorter Catechism," which Mr. Henry, in this work, has beautifully illustrated in the language of scripture, is here presented, in the very words of the Westminster Divines. This is here mentioned, inasmuch as, in the London Edition of this work, there are to be found some few deviations from the language employed by the Westminster Divines, though none of them are such as to affect the sentiment. Of the illustrative questions and answers contained in the London Edition, one only is, in this edition, omitted. This is done, under an impression which is believed to be well founded, that the question and answer here alluded to, was never written by Mr. Henry; but was, in some unaccountable way, interpolated into the London Edition of this work. If inquiry be made into the ground of this supposition, the reply to such inquiry must be, that the question and answer here referred to, considered in connexion, exhibit a palpable misapplication of a text of scripture, and convey an erroneous sentiment, which is flatly contradicted, in other parts of Mr. Henry’s published works.

The Editor deems it unnecessary to add anything, commendatory of the following pages. The well established reputation of the author, is a sufficient recommendation to all the productions of his pen. May the Divine blessing accompany the publication of this Edition.
THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

We are very happy (I know) in catechisms, which, to the inhabitants of this valley of vision, will be either the means of knowledge, or the shame of ignorance. The variety of these forms of sound words, while they all speak for substance the same thing, and are all built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, derogates not at all from the honour of the Christian doctrine, but rather (like the setting up of several candles in the same room) help to diffuse the light, and make it stronger. Many very excellent expositions we have both of the Church Catechism and of the Assembly's, and an ancient and profitable one of Mr. Ball's; and yet some encourage me to hope, that this essay, which is in a way not hitherto used, that I know of, will be found not altogether useless. Two things I aim at in it: one is, to put the catechism into such a dress, as to make it (if possible) both easy and copious, so as that it may not be an insuperable task to the learner, and yet may furnish him with plenty of useful knowledge. The bulk of it (which somewhat exceeds my first intentions) shows it to be copious; and yet I think it is made very easy, by breaking of it into so many short questions, and those answered by Yes or No, which the learner may at first content himself with, the teacher, if he pleases, reading the proofs; and, by degrees, the learner, who is willing to take a little pains, and begins to be versed in the Scriptures, will find it no great difficulty to charge his memory with most of the proofs annexed, which the question oftentimes easily introduces, and which, by frequent use, will in time become familiar. I remember to have seen an Explanation of the Assembly's Shorter Catechism, (and I think it was the first that ever was published) by a great man, the Rev. Dr. Wallis, of Oxford, which was done by breaking the propositions of the catechism in short questions (as this) with Yes or No. That performance, though very short, was an excellent precedent, directing to a method of catechising, which has been of good use to enrich the understanding of the learners, without overloading their memories. The text subjoined here will shew that our Yea is yea, and our Nay, nay. To make this the more easy, the several sections under each article may be allotted to several catechumens.

But another thing I aim at, (and indeed the chief,) is to promote the knowledge of the scriptures. Divine truths, methinks, sound best in divine language; and the things which God has revealed to us by his Spirit, cannot be conveyed in a more safe and proper vehicle, than by the words which the Holy Ghost teaches, (1 Cor. ii. 10, 13,) which, though I would be far from superstitiously tying myself or others to, yet, I confess, I cannot but think they should be preferred. I have often observed how the evangelist rectifies a mistake which rose upon a saying of Christ's, only by repeating the word spoken, John xxi. 23. He said not, He shall not die; but, if I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? He said so, and no more; add thou not to his words. We are directed not only to think, but to speak, according to his word. Isa. viii. 20.

It is especially profitable to acquaint children betimes with their bibles, and to shew them their religion there. Timothy's Catechism was the Scripture which he knew from his very infancy. 2 Tim. iii. 15. They who are ready and mighty in the Scriptures, will be thoroughly furnished for every good work, and thoroughly fortified against every evil work. What I have here endeavored, may, (I hope) prove a good expedient for this purpose, obliging myself to produce a text of Scripture for every question, it cannot be thought they should be alike apposite. Perhaps here and there one may be found that is diverted from its primary intention by an allusion only, (which I think is warranted by diverse of the New Testament quotations out of the Old,) yet I hope there is none perverted. Were we more conversant with the inspired writings, we should (as one of the ancients speaks,) "adore the fulness of the Scriptures. I have quoted the texts as concisely as I could, in hopes the diligent reader, who searches the Scripture daily, will be stirred up to look further into the places referred to, which he will often find very well worth his while. To that end, I have throughout added the book, chapter, and verse, which yet it is needless for them who learn by heart, to trouble themselves with.
To the service of such ministers, governors of families, and other Christians, as shall see cause to make use of such a help, with an entire dependance upon the grace and blessing of God, for the acceptableness and usefulness of it, this small oblation is humbly tendered, by one who is earnestly desirous to increase in Scripture knowledge, and ambitious of the honor of being any way instrumental to propagate it.

Matthew Henry

Postscript to the Third Edition.

I am willing to take this opportunity to advise one thing more concerning the use of this Catechism, which I have found very beneficial, viz: That the learners be put in their answers to turn the question into a proposition, which they will easily do with a little direction. Example,—Is man a reasonable creature? Yes: man is a reasonable creature; for there is a spirit in man, &c. And this will lead them, when the question gives occasion for it, to make application to themselves. Again, is it your business in the world to serve the flesh? No: it is not my business in the world to serve the flesh; for we are not debtors to the flesh.
THE WESTMINSTER ASSEMBLY'S SHORTER CATECHISM, WITH WHICH IS INCORPORATED
The Scripture Catechism of the Rev. Matthew Henry.

1. Q. What is the chief end of man?
A. Man’s chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy him forever.

§ I.
1. Q. Is man a reasonable creature?
A. Yes: for there is a spirit in man, and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth him understanding. Job xxxii. 8.
2. Q. Has he greater capacities than the brutes?
A. Yes: for God teacheth us more than the heasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of Heaven. Job xxxv. 11.

§ II.
1. Q. Is man his own maker?
A. No: it is God that hath made us, and not we ourselves. Psalms c. 3.
2. Q. Is he, then, his own master?
A. No: there is a Lord over us. Ps. xii. 4.
3. Q. Is he his own carver?
A. No: should it be according to thy mind? Job xxxiv. 33.
4. Q. Is he his own end?
A. No: for none of us lives to himself, or dies to himself. Rom. xiv. 7.

§ III.
1. Q. Is it your business in the world to serve the flesh?
A. No: for we are not debtors to the flesh, that we should live after the flesh. Rom. viii. 12.
2. Q. Is it to pursue the world?
A. No: for we are not of the world. John xvii. 16.

§ IV.
1. Q. Is your happiness bound up in the creature?
   A. No: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit. Eccl. i. 14.
2. Q. Will the riches of the world make you happy?
   A. No: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Luke xii. 15.
3. Q. Will the praise and applause of men make you happy?
4. Q. Will sport and pleasure make you happy?
   A. No: for the wise man said of laughter, It is mad, and of mirth, What doeth it? Eccl. ii. 2.
5. Q. Can the gain of the world make you happy?
   A. No: for what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Matt. xvi. 26.

§ V.
1. Q. Is God, then, your chief end?
   A. Yes: for of him, and through him, and to him are all things. Rom. xi. 36.
2. Q. Were you made for him?
   A. Yes: this people have I formed for myself. Isa. xliii. 21.
3. Q. Were you redeemed for him?
   A. Yes: ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price. 1 Cor. vi. 19, 20.

§ VI.
1. Q. Is it your chief business to glorify God?
   A. Yes: we must glorify God in our body and in our spirit, which are God's. 1 Cor. vi. 20.
2. Q. Must this be ultimately designed in all our actions?
   A. Yes: do all to the glory of God. 1 Cor. x. 31.
3. Q. Is God glorified by our praises?
   A. Yes: he that offers praise, glorifies God. Ps. i. 23.
4. Q. And is he glorified by our works?
   A. Yes: herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit. John xv. 8.

§ VII.
1. Q. Is God your chief good?
   A. Yes: for happy is the people whose God is the Lord. Ps. cxiv. 15.
2. Q. Does all good come from him?
   A. Yes: for with him is the fountain of life. Ps. xxxvi. 9.
3. Q. And is all good enjoyed in him?
A. Yes: the Lord is the portion of my inheritance, and of my cup. Ps. xvi. 5.

§ VIII.

1. Q. Is it your chief happiness, then, to have God's favour?
A. Yes: for in his favour is life. Ps. xxx. 5.

2. Q. Is that the most desirable good?
A. Yes: for his loving kindness is better than life. Ps. lxiii. 3.

3. Q. Do you desire it above any good?
A. Yes: Lord lift thou the light of thy countenance upon us. Ps. iv. 6.

4. Q. And should you give all diligence to make it sure?
A. Yes: herein we labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of the Lord. 2 Cor. v. 9.

§ IX.

1. Q. Is communion with God in grace here the best pleasure?
A. Yes: it is good for me to draw near to God. Ps. lxxiii.

2. Q. Is the vision and fruition of God in glory hereafter the best portion?
A. Yes: for in his presence there is fulness of joy. Ps. xvi. 11.

3. Q. Will you, therefore, set your heart upon this chief good?
A. Yes: Lord, whom have I in Heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee, when my flesh and my heart fail, God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. Ps. lxxiii. 25, 26.

II. Q. What rule hath God given to direct us how we may glorify and enjoy him?
A. The word of God (which is contained in the scriptures of the Old and New Testament) is the only rule to direct us how we may glorify and enjoy him.

§ I.

1. Q. Do we need a rule to direct us to our chief end?
A. Yes: for we all, like sheep, have gone astray. Isa liii. 6.

2. Q. Could we not find it out, of ourselves?
A. No: for man is born like the wild ass's colt. Job xi. 12.

§ II.

1. Q. Is divine revelation necessary to religion?
SCRIPTURÆ CATECHISM.

A. Yes: for faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God. Rom. x. 17.

2. Q. Is not the light of nature sufficient without it?
   A. No: for the world, by wisdom, knew not God. 1 Cor. i. 21.

3. Q. Has God, therefore, given us a revelation?
   A. Yes: He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good. Mic. vi. 8.

4. Q. Was there revelation from the beginning?
   A. Yes: at sundry times, and in divers manners, God spake unto the fathers. Heb. i. 1.

§ III.

1. Q. Are the scriptures of the Old and New Testament the word of God, and a divine revelation?
   A. Yes: for all scripture is given by inspiration of God. 2 Tim. iii. 16.

2. Q. Were they indited by the blessed Spirit?
   A. Yes: for holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. 2 Pet. i. 21.

3. Q. Were they confirmed by miracles?
   A. Yes: God also bearing them witness both with signs and wonders. Heb. ii. 4.

4. Q. Do they recommend themselves?
   A. Yes: for the word of God is quick and powerful. Heb. iv. 12.

5. Is not the Bible, then, a cheat, put upon the world?
   A. No: for these are not the words of him that hath a devil. John x. 21.

§ IV.

1. Q. Was the book of scripture written for our use?
   A. Yes: whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning. Rom. xv. 4.

2. Q. And is it of great use?
   A. Yes: for it is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. 2 Tim. iii. 16.

§ V.

1. Q. Are the scriptures the great support of our religion?
   A. Yes: for we are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets. Ephes. ii. 20.

2. Q. Are they the standing rule of our faith and practice?
   A. Yes: We must have recourse to the law and to the testimony. Isa. viii. 20.
3. Q. Are they the only rule?
   A. Yes: for other foundation can no man lay. 1 Cor. iii. 2.
4. Q. Are they our guide?
   A. Yes: for the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light. Prov. vi. 23.
5. Q. Do they shew us the way to Heaven and happiness?
   A. Yes: for in them we think we have eternal life; and they are they which testify of Christ. John v. 39.

§ VI.
1. Q. Are the scriptures our oracle which we must consult?
   A. Yes: what is written in the law? How readest thou?
2. Q. Are they our touch-stone which we must try by?
   A. Yes: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. Isa. viii. 20.
3. Q. Are they the weapons of our spiritual warfare?
   A. Yes: get thee hence, Satan, for it is written. Matt. iv. 10; Ephes. vi. 17.

§ VII.
1. Q. Is the written word a sufficient rule?
   A. Yes: for the law of the Lord is perfect. Ps. xix. 7.
2. Q. Is it plain?
   A. Yes: for the word is nigh thee. Rom. x. 8.
3. Q. Is the church's authority the rule of our faith?
   A. No: for our faith should not stand in the wisdom of men. 1 Cor. ii. 5.
4. Q. May we depend upon unwritten traditions?
   A. No: for we must refuse profane and old wives' fables. 1 Tim. iv. 7.

§ VIII.
1. Q. Will the written word be the rule of our judgment hereafter?
   A. Yes: for we must be judged by the law of liberty. James ii. 12.
2. Q. Ought we, therefore, to be ruled by it now?
   A. Yes: as many as walk according to this rule, peace shall be on them. Gal. vi. 16.
3. Q. And to be comforted by it?
   A. Yes: for through patience and comfort of the scriptures, we have hope. Rom. xv. 4.

§ IX.
1. Q. Are the scriptures to be translated into vulgar tongues?
A. Yes: for we should hear them speak, in our tongues, the wonderful works of God. Acts ii. 11.

2. Q. And must we study them?

3. Q. And labour to understand them?

4. Q. And must we rest satisfied with this revelation of God's will?

A. Yes: for if we believe not Moses and the prophets, neither would we be persuaded though one rose from the dead. Luke xvi. 31.

5. Q. Is it a great affront to God to neglect his word?

A. Yes: I have written unto them the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing. Hos. viii. 12.

1. Q. Must little children get the knowledge of the scripture?

A. Yes: Timothy is commended for this, that from a child he knew the holy scriptures. 2 Tim. iii. 15.

2. Q. And must their parents instruct them therein?

A. Yes: they must teach them diligently unto their children and talk of them. Deut. vi. 7.

1. Q. Must we all love the word of God?

A. Yes: O how love I thy law! Ps. cxix. 97.

2. Q. And must we meditate therein?

A. Yes: it is my meditation all the day. Ps. cxix. 97.

3. Q. And will this be to our own advantage?

A. Yes: for it is able to make us wise to salvation. 2 Tim. iii. 15.

III. Q. What do the scriptures principally teach?

A. The scriptures principally teach, what man is to believe concerning God, and what duty God requires of man.

§ xii.

1. Q. Is it necessary that we have a faith concerning God?

A. Yes: for he that comes to God must believe that he is, and that he is the rewarder of them that diligently seek him. Heb. xi. 6.
2. Q. Can we have that faith without being taught?
A. No: for how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? Rom. x. 14.

3. Q. And have they not heard?
A. Yes: verily their sound went into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. Rom. x. 18.

§ II.
1. Q. Is not the knowledge of God a great privilege?
A. Yes: for this is life eternal, to know thee the only true God. John xvii. 3.

2. Q. Is it not the best knowledge?
A. Yes: for the knowledge of the Holy is understanding. Prov. ix. 10.

3. Q. Does the scripture teach us that knowledge?
A. Yes: for if we receive those words, and hide those commandments with us, then shall we understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God. Prov. ii. 1, 5.

§ III.
1. Q. Do not the works of creation prove that there is a God?
A. Yes: for we understand by the things that are made, his eternal power and Godhead. Rom. i. 20.

2. Q. And do not the works of Providence prove it?
A. Yes: for verily there is a God that judgeth in the earth. Ps. lvi. 11.

3. Q. But do not the scriptures tell us best what God is?
A. Yes: for no man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. John i. 18.

§ IV.
1. Q. Are we all concerned to get the knowledge of God?
A. Yes: We should all know him, from the least even to the greatest. Heb. viii. 11.

2. Q. Must children get that knowledge?
A. Yes: I write unto you, little children, because you have known the Father. I John ii. 13.

3. Q. And must we all grow in that knowledge?
A. Yes: We must follow on to know the Lord. Hos. vi. 3.

§ V.
1. Q. Are we to believe what the scripture reveals concerning God?
A. Yes: for these things are written that we may believe. John xx. 31.
2. Q. And must we believe all that the scripture reveals?
   A. Yes: believing all things which are written in the law

3. Q. Must we believe that which is not revealed?
   A. No: for the things of God knows no man, but the Spirit of God. 1 Cor. ii. 11.

§ VI.

1. Q. Does God require duty of man?
   A. Yes: for unto man he said, Behold the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil, that is understanding.
   Job. xxviii. 28.

2. Q. Is it enough to believe the truth revealed, if we do not the duty that is required?
   A. No: for faith without works is dead. James ii. 26.

3. Q. Is it enough to do the duty required, though we do not believe the truth revealed?
   A. No: for he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar.
   1 John v. 10.

§ VII.

1. Q. Does the scripture teach us what duty God requires?
   A. Yes: he hath showed thee what the Lord thy God requires of thee. Mic. vi. 8.

2. Q. And must we do the duty that the scripture teaches?
   A. Yes: we must observe to do according to all that is written therein, and not turn from it to the right hand, or to the left. Josh. i. 7.

3. Q. Must this obedience always accompany faith?
   A. Yes: for they which have believed in God must be careful to maintain good works. Tit. iii. 8.

IV. Q. What is God?
   A. God is a Spirit, infinite, eternal and unchangeable in his being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth.

§ I.

1. Q. Is God a Spirit?
   A. Yes: for Christ himself has said, God is a Spirit. John iv.
   24.

2. Q. Is he a pure Spirit?
   A. Yes: for God is light, and with him is no darkness at all.
   1 John i. 5.
3. Q. Has he a body as we have?
A. No: Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as a man seeth? Job x. 4.

4. Q. Can he be seen with bodily eyes?
A. No: for he is one whom no man hath seen, or can see.

1 Tim. vi. 16.

5. Q. Are not the angels spirits?
A. Yes: He maketh his angels spirits. Ps. civ. 4.

6. Q. Are not the souls of men spirits?
A. Yes: for he formeth the spirit of man within him. Zech. xii. 1.

7. Q. But is God a spirit like unto them?
A. No: for he is the Father of spirits. Heb. xii. 9.

§ II.

1. Q. Is God infinite?
A. Yes: for we cannot, by searching, find out God. Job xi. 7.

2. Q. Is he contained in any place?
A. No: for the heaven of heavens cannot contain him. 1 Kings viii. 27.

3. Q. Is he every where present?
A. Yes: for whither can we go from his spirit, or flee from his presence? Ps. cxxxix. 7.

4. Q. Can any hide himself in secret places that God shall not see him?
A. No: for do not I fill heaven and earth, saith the Lord? Jer. xxiii. 24.

1. Q. Is God eternal?
A. Yes: From everlasting to everlasting thou art God? Ps. xc. 2.

2. Q. Had he beginning of days?
A. No: for he is the Ancient of days. Dan. vii. 9.

3. Q. Shall there be any end of his life?
A. No: for he is the same, and his years have no end. Ps. cii. 27.

4. Q. Is there with him any succession of time?
A. No: for his days are not as the days of man. Job. x. 5.

5. Can he die?
A. No: he is the only potentate, that hath immortality. 1 Tim. vi. 16.

1. Q. Is God unchangeable?
A. Yes: for he is the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, nor shadow of turning. James i. 17.

2. Q. Is there any decay of his perfections?
   A. No: for He fainteth not, neither is weary. Isa. xi. 28.

3. Q. Is there any alteration in his counsels?
   A. No: for He is not a man that he should repent. 1 Sam. xv. 29.

4. Q. Is it well for us that he is unchangeable?
   A. Yes: I am the Lord, I change not, therefore, ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. Mal. iii. 6.

§ v.

1. Q. Is God infinite in his being?
   A. Yes: for he has said, I AM THAT I AM. Exod. iii. 14.

2. Q. Is he self-existent?

3. Q. Is he the best of beings?
   A. Yes: for who is a God like unto him? Exod. xv. 11.

4. Q. Is he the first of causes?
   A. Yes: for he is the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him. 1. Cor. viii. 6.

5. Q. Is he the highest of powers?
   A. Yes: for he is the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords. 1 Tim. vi. 15.

§ vi.

1. Q. Is he a God of perfect knowledge?
   A. Yes: for his understanding is infinite. Ps. cxlvi. 5.

2. Q. Can any thing be hid from him?
   A. No: for all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. Heb. iv. 13.

3. Q. Does he know things to come?
   A. Yes: for he declareth the end from the beginning. Isa. xlvi. 10.

4. Q. Does he know our hearts?
   A. Yes: for he understandeth our thoughts afar off. Ps. cxxxix. 2.

5. Q. Does he know all our actions?
   A. Yes: for his eyes are upon the ways of man. Job. xxxiv 21.

1. Q. Is God infinitely wise?
   A. Yes: for wisdom and might are his. Dan. ii. 20.

   A. Yes: behold he cometh, in the clouds, and every eye shall see him. Rev. i. 7.

1. Q. Will Christ come to judge the world?
   A. Yes: God hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained. Acts xvii. 31.

2. Q. Will he come to the terror of all his enemies?
   A. Yes: They also which pierced him shall wail because of him. Rev. i. 7.

3. Q. Will he come to the comfort of all his faithful followers?
   A. Yes: to them that look for him, he will appear the second time, unto salvation. Heb. ix. 28.

4. Q. Will this be at the last day?
   A. Yes: I will raise him up, at the last day. John vi. 39.
5. Q. Ought we to wait for that day?
A. Yes: looking for the blessed hope, and the glorious appearance of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ. Tit. ii. 13.

XXIX. Q. How are we made partakers of the redemption purchased by Christ?
A. We are made partakers of the redemption purchased by Christ, by the effectual application of it to us by his Holy Spirit.

§ I.
1. Q. Is redemption purchased by Christ?
A. Yes: he obtained eternal redemption for us. Heb. ix. 12.
2. Q. Is he, then, the author of it?
3. Q. Is it redemption by price?
A. Yes: ye are bought with a price. 1 Cor. vi. 20.
4. Q. Is it a redemption by power?
A. Yes: for he hath led captivity captive. Ps. lxviii. 18.
5. Q. Is this redemption offered to all?
A. Yes: he hath proclaimed liberty to the captives. Isa. lxi. 1.
6. Q. May all that will take the benefit of it?
A. Yes: ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters. Isa. lv. 1.
7. Q. Have all the world, therefore, some benefit by it?
A. Yes: go into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mark xvi. 15.
8. Q. But have all the world a like benefit by it?
A. No: thou wilt manifest thyself to us, and not unto the world. John xiv. 22.

§ II.
1. Q. Is it enough for us, that there is a redemption purchased?
A. No: for there are those who deny the Lord who bought them. 2 Pet. ii. 1.
2. Q. Is it enough to hear of it?
A. No: for to some it is a savour of death unto death. 2 Cor. ii. 16.
3. Q. Is it enough to have a name among the redeemed?
A. No: thou hast a name that thou livest and art dead. Rev. iii. 1.
4. Q. Is it necessary, therefore, that we be partakers of the redemption?
   A. Yes: that we may say, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Gal. ii. 20.
5. Q. Do all partake of it?
   A. No: thou has neither part nor lot in this matter. Acts. viii. 21.
6. Q. Do all believers partake of it?
   A. Yes: we are made partakers of Christ. Heb. iii. 14.
7. Q. Do they receive the Redeemer?
   A. Yes: we have received Christ Jesus the Lord. Col. ii. 6.
8. Q. Do any receive this of themselves?
   A. No: a man can receive nothing except it be given him from above. John iii. 27.

§III.
1. Q. Must the redemption be applied to us?
   A. Yes: it is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Col. i. 27.
2. Q. Is it the Spirit's work, to apply it?
   A. Yes: for it is the Spirit that quickens. John vi. 63.
3. Q. Is he sent for that purpose?
   A. Yes: he shall take of mine and shall shew it unto you. John xvi. 15.
4. Q. Is he sent, in Christ's name?
   A. Yes: he is the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send, in my name. John xiv. 26.
5. Q. Have we as much need of the Spirit, to apply the redemption to us, as of the Son, to purchase it for us?
   A. Yes: for when Christ had purchased it, it was expedient for us he should go away, that he might send the Comforter. John xvi. 7.

§IV.
1. Q. Is the Spirit given to the church, in general?
   A. Yes: another Comforter shall abide with you forever. John xiv. 16.
2. Q. Is he promised to particular persons?
   A. Yes: turn ye at my reproof; behold, I will pour out my Spirit unto you. Prov. i. 23.

A. Yes: he has given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. 2 Cor. i. 22.

8. Q. Does he begin the good work of grace in the heart?
A. Yes: for when he is come, he shall convince. John xvi. 8.

9. Q. And does he perfect it?
A. Yes: for he hath wrought us for the self-same thing. 2 Cor. v. 5.

XXX. Q. How doth the Spirit apply to us the redemption purchased by Christ?
A. The Spirit applieth to us the redemption purchased by Christ, by working faith in us, and thereby uniting us to Christ, in our effectual calling.

1. Q. Does the Spirit act freely in applying the redemption?
A. Yes: the wind bloweth where it listeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. John iii. 8.

2. Q. Does he act mysteriously?
A. Yes: thou knowest not what is the way of the Spirit. Eccl. xi. 5.

3. Q. Does he act effectually?
A. Yes: all that the Father giveth me shall come to me. John vi. 37.

§ ii.

1. Q. Is faith necessary to our interest in the redemption?
A. Yes: for without faith, it is impossible to please God. Heb. xi. 6.

2. Q. Is it the great thing necessary?
A. Yes: only believe: all things are possible to him that can believe. Mark v. 36, and ix. 23.

3. Q. Can we have a saving interest in the redemption, without faith?
A. No: he that believeth not, is condemned already. John iii. 18.
4. Q. Is it that which is required on our part?
   A. Yes: by grace ye are saved through faith. Ephes. ii. 8.

5. Q. And is it of ourselves?
   A. No: not of ourselves, it is the gift of God. Ephes. ii. 8.

6. Q. Is it given for Christ's sake?
   A. Yes: unto you it is given, on the behalf of Christ, to believe on him. Phil. i. 29.

§ III.

1. Q. Does the Spirit work faith in us?
   A. Yes: it is the faith of the operation of God. Col. ii. 12.

2. Q. Is it a divine work then?
   A. Yes: this is the work of God, that ye believe. John vi. 29.

3. Q. Is it a work of divine power?
   A. Yes: we believe according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ. Ephes. i. 19, 20.

4. Q. Is it wrought in all the saints?
   A. Yes: for they have all obtained a like precious faith.

2 Pet. i. 1.

5. Q. Shall it be wrought in all the chosen?
   A. Yes: for it is the faith of God's elect. Tit. i. 1.

§ IV.

1. Q. Are all true believers united to Christ?
   A. Yes: he that is joined to the Lord is one spirit. 1 Cor. vi. 17.

3. Q. Does it call us from darkness to light?
A. Yes: he hath called us, out of darkness unto his marvellous light. 1 Pet. ii. 9.

4. Q. And from uncleanness to holiness?
A. Yes: God hath not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness. 1 Thess. iv. 7.

5. Q. And from this world to another and better?*
A. Yes: if ye be risen with Christ, seek those things that are above. Col. iii. 1.

6. Q. Is this call effectual, when we come at the call?
A. Yes: follow me; and he arose, and followed him. Matt. ix. 9.

7. Q. Is it our great concern to make this sure?
A. Yes: make your calling and your election sure. 2 Pet. i. 10.

* In the original work, it is, "to the other?"—Ed.
XXXI. Q. What is effectual calling?

_A. Effectual calling is the work of God's Spirit, whereby, convincing us of our sin and misery, enlightening our minds in the knowledge of Christ, and renewing our wills, he doth persuade and enable us to embrace Jesus Christ, freely offered to us in the gospel.

§ I.

1. Q. Is the common call given to the world?
   _A._ Yes: he sent forth his servants, to call them that were bidden. Matt. xxii. 3.

2. Q. Can ministers make that call effectual?

3. Q. Is it the work of God, to make it effectual?
   _A._ Yes: for it is God that giveth the increase. 1 Cor. iii. 7.

4. Q. Does he do it, in a way, suitable to our nature?
   _A._ Yes: I drew them with the cords of a man. Hos. xi. 4.

5. Q. Is it necessary to our salvation, that the call should be effectual?
   _A._ Yes: who hath saved us and called us, with a holy calling. 2 Tim. i. 9.

§ II.

1. Q. Are all who are effectually called, convicted of sin?
   _A._ Yes: I was alive without the law once; but, when the commandment came, sin revived. Rom. vii. 9.

2. Q. Is it the Spirit's work to convince?
   _A._ Yes: when he is come, he will convince the world of sin. John xvi. 8.

3. Q. Is the word the ordinary means of conviction?
   _A._ Yes: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Rom. iii. 20.

4. Q. Is it necessary we should be convinced of sin?

   A. Yes: thou art wretched and miserable. Rev. iii. 17.

2. Q. And of our danger?
   A. Yes: flee from the wrath to come. Matt. iii. 7.

3. Q. Must we be convinced of our helplessness in ourselves?

4. Q. And of the possibility of our being helped by the grace of God?
   A. Yes: how many hired servants of my Father, have bread enough, and to spare? Luke xv. 17.

5. Q. Will these convictions put us in pain?
   A. Yes: when they heard this they were pricked to the heart. ii. 37.

6. Q. And bring us to be at a loss within ourselves?

7. Q. And put us upon inquiry?
   A. Yes: they shall ask the way to Sion, with their faces thitherward. Jer. i. 5.

8. Q. Are these convictions necessary, to prepare us for an invitation to Christ?
   A. Yes: come unto me, all ye that labor, and are heavy laden. Matt. xi. 28.

§ IV.
1. Q. Does the Spirit, when he has convinced us of sin and misery, leave us so?
   A. No: for he has torn, and he will heal us. Hos. vi. 1.

2. Q. When he has shewed us our wound, does he shew us our remedy?
   A. Yes: O, Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself, but in me is thy help. Hos. xiii. 9.

3. Q. Does he enlighten our minds?
   A. Yes: the Spirit of wisdom and revelation is given, that the eyes of our understanding may be enlightened. Ephes. i. 17, 18.
4. Q. Does he enlighten them, with the knowledge of Christ?
   A. Yes: he gives the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 2 Cor. iv. 6.

5. Q. Does he discover, to the soul, Christ's ability to save?
   A. Yes: I have laid help upon one that is mighty. Psalm lxxxix. 19.

6. Q. And his willingness to save?
   A. Yes: I will, be thou clean. Matt. viii. 3.

   A. Yes: counting all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus our Lord. Philipp. iii. 8.

8. Q. Does the Spirit direct convinced sinners to Christ?
   A. Yes: turn ye to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope.
   Zech. ix. 12.

1. Q. Is it enough to have the mind enlightened?
   A. No: for we are called into a professed subjection to the gospel of Christ. 2 Cor. ix. 13.

2. Q. Must the will, therefore, be renewed?
   A. Yes: For it is God that worketh in us, both to will and to do, of his own good pleasure. Philipp. ii. 13.

3. Q. Is it the work of the Spirit, to incline the will to do that which is good?
   A. Yes: incline my heart unto thy testimonies. Ps. cxix. 36.

4. Q. And is that the renewing of the will?
   A. Yes: a new heart, will I give you, and a new spirit will

5. Q. Does that make the will pliable?
   A. Yes: I will take the stony heart out of their flesh and I will give them an heart of flesh. Ezek. xi. 19.

6. Q. Does it bring it into subjection to the will of God?
   A. Yes: Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? Acts ix. 6.

7. Q. And is that a cheerful subjection?
   A. Yes: because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts, by the Holy Ghost. Rom. v. 5.

§ vi.
1. Q. Is Christ offered to us in the gospel?
   A. Yes: behold, I stand at the door, and knock. Rev. iii. 20.

2. Q. Is he freely offered?
   A. Yes: Come, buy, without money, and without price. Isa.
   lv. 1.

3. Q. Are we concerned to embrace that offer?
A. Yes: come, eat of my bread, and drink of my wine that I have mingled. Prov. ix. 5.

4. Q. Are we, by nature, averse to it?
   A. Yes: ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. John v. 40.

5. Q. Do sinners perish, then, through their own wilfulness?
   A. Yes: I have called, and ye have refused. Prov. i. 24.

6. Q. Does the Spirit, in effectual calling, overcome this aversion?
   A. Yes: with loving kindness have I drawn thee. Jer. xxxi. 3.

7. Q. Does he persuade us to embrace this offer?
   A. Yes: for every man that hath heard, and learned of the Father, cometh unto me. John vi, 45.

8. Q. Does he enable us?
   A. Yes: for you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins. Ephes. ii. 1.

§ VII.

1. Q. Can we turn to God, by any power of our own?
   A. No: for we are not sufficient, of ourselves. 2 Cor. iii. 5.

2. Q. Is it the grace of God, that turns us to him?
   A. Yes: turn thou me, and I shall be turned. Jer. xxxi. 18.

3. Q. Is it free grace?
   A. Yes: he went on frowardly in the way of his heart; I have seen his ways, and will heal him. Isa. lvii. 17, 18.

4. Q. Does it turn us, by a work upon the will?

5. Q. Is it special grace?
   A. Yes: it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God, that sheweth mercy. Rom. ix. 16.

6. Q. Shall this grace be given to all the elect?
   A. Yes: all that the Father hath given me, shall come unto me. John vi. 37.

7. Q. Shall it be effectual?
   A. Yes: his grace, which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain. 1 Cor. xv. 10.

8. Q. May we, in faith, pray for this grace?
   A. Yes: I will, for this, be inquired of, by the house of Israel. Ezek. xxxvi. 37.

9. Q. Can any turn to God without this special grace?
   A. No: for no man can come to me, except the Father, which hath sent me, draw him. John vi. 44.

10. Q. Must that grace, therefore have all the glory?
A. Yes: we must shew forth the praises of him that hath called us. 1 Pet. ii. 9.

XXXII. Q. What benefits, do they that are effectually called, partake of in this life?

A. They that are effectually called, do, in this life, partake of justification, adoption, and sanctification, and the several benefits, which, in this life, do either accompany or flow from them.

§I.

1. Q. Are all those happy which are effectually called?
A. Yes: for God hath called us to his kingdom and glory. 1 Thess. ii. 12.

2. Q. Are they partakers of the blessings of the new covenant?
A. Yes: for the promise is sure to all the seed. Rom. iv. 16.

3. Q. Are they happy, even in this life?
A. Yes: for after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise. Ephes. i. 13.

§II.

1. Q. Are they dignified, and preferred?
A. Yes: ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood. 1 Pet. ii. 9.

2. Q. Are they brought near?
A. Yes: ye who, sometimes, were afar off, are made nigh. Ephes. ii. 13.

3. Q. Are they enriched?
A. Yes: God hath called the poor in this world rich in faith. James ii. 5.

4. Q. Are they taken into the communion of saints?
A. Yes: for we are come to the church of the first born which are written in heaven. Heb. xii. 23.

5. Q. And into communion with the holy angels?
A. Yes: for we are come to an innumerable company of angels. Heb. xii. 22.

6. Q. Are they entitled to the best possessions?
A. Yes: all things are yours, whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours. 1 Cor. iii. 21, 22.

7. Q. Are they happy in the best blessings?
A. Yes: the God and father of our Lord Jesus, hath blessed us, with spiritual blessings, in heavenly things. Ephes. i. 3.

A. Yes: He hath given us all things that pertain to life and godliness. 2 Pet. i. 3.

§ III.

1. Q. Are they justified?
A. Yes: Whom he called, them he also justified. Rom. viii. 30.

2. Q. Is that an unspeakable benefit?
A. Yes: blessed is the man, whose iniquity is forgiven. Ps. xxxii. 1.

3. Q. Are they adopted?
A. Yes: for he hath predestinated us to the adoption of children. Ephes. i. 5.

4. Q. And is that an unspeakable benefit?
A. Yes: for, if children, then heirs. Rom. viii. 17.

5. Q. Are they sanctified?
A. Yes: they are sanctified in Christ Jesus. 1 Cor. i. 2.

6. Q. And is that an unspeakable benefit?
A. Yes: for we are partakers of his holiness. Heb. xii. 10.

§ IV.

1. 1. Q. Do they partake of other benefits?
A. Yes: the Lord will give grace and glory, and no good thing will be withheld from them that walk uprightly. Ps. lxxxiv. 11.

2. Q. Are all these benefits given to them that are effectually called?
A. Yes: for the promise of the remission of sins, and the gift of the Holy Ghost, is to as many as the Lord our God shall call. Acts ii. 39.

3. Q. And shall every thing turn to their advantage?
A. Yes: all things work together for good to them that are the called. Rom. viii. 28.

4. Q. Will you, therefore, make it sure, that you are effectually called, by coming at the call?
A. Yes: behold we come unto thee, for thou art the Lord our God. Jer. iii. 22.

XXXIII. Q. What is justification?
A. Justification is an act of God's free grace, wherein he pardoneth all our sins, and accepteth us as righteous in his sight, only for the righteousness of Christ imputed to us, and received by faith alone.
1. Q. Have we all need to be justified?
A. Yes: for we are all guilty before God. Rom. iii. 19.

2. Q. Is it enough, if we justify ourselves?
A. No: if I justify myself, my own mouth shall condemn me. Job ix. 20.

3. Q. Is it enough, if our neighbours justify us?
A. No: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God. Luke xvi. 15.

4. Q. Must it be God's act, then?
A. Yes: it is God that justifieth. Rom. viii. 33.

5. Q. And his only?
A. Yes: for none can forgive sins, but God only. Mark ii. 7.

6. Q. And is it an act of free grace?
A. Yes: we are justified freely, by his grace. Rom. iii. 24.

§ II.

1. Q. Are all that are justified discharged from the sentence of the law?
A. Yes: for there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus. Rom. viii. 1.

2. Q. Have they their sins pardoned!
A. Yes: we have redemption, through his blood, the forgiveness of sins. Ephes. i. 7.

3. Q. Does God forgive them?
A. Yes: I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions. Isa. xliii. 25.

§ III.

1. Q. When God forgives sin, does he forgive all?

2. Q. Does he forgive even great sins?
A. Yes: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow. Isa. i. 18.

3. Q. Does he forgive many sins?
A. Yes: He will abundantly pardon. Isa. lv. 7.

4. Q. Does he forgive freely?
A. Yes: I will be merciful to their unrighteousness. Heb. viii. 12.

5. Q. Does he forgive fully?
A. Yes: their sins, and their iniquities will I remember no more. Heb. viii. 12.

6. Q. Is he forward to forgive?
A. Yes: I said I will confess, and thou forgavest. Ps. xxxii. 5.
7. Q. Does he forgive and forget?
A. Yes: thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. Mic. vii. 19.

§ iv.

1. Q. Is forgiveness of sins offered to all, upon gospel terms?
A. Yes: for repentance and remission of sins is preached to all nations. Luke xxiv. 47.

2. Q. Is it secured to all the chosen remnant?
A. Yes: for Christ is exalted, to be a Prince, and a Saviour, to give repentance and remission of sins. Acts v. 31.

3. Q. Have all believers their sins pardoned?
A. Yes: through him, all that believe are justified. Acts xiii. 39.

4. Q. Are they accepted, in God's sight?
A. Yes: He hath made us accepted in the beloved. Ephes. i. 6.

5. Q. Are they accepted, as righteous?
A. Yes: for we are made the righteousness of God in him. 2 Cor. v. 21.

6. Q. May those that have been ungodly be thus justified?
A. Yes: He justifies the ungodly. Rom. iv. 5.

1. Q. Can we be justified by the covenant of innocency?
A. No: for who can say, I have made my heart clean? Prov. xx. 9.

2. Q. Can we be justified by any thing in ourselves?
A. No: how can man be justified with God? Job xxv. 4.

3. Q. If we know no ill by ourselves, will that justify us?
A. No: though I know nothing by myself, yet am I not thereby justified. 1 Cor. iv. 4.

4. Q. Will the law of Moses justify us?
A. No: we are justified from all things from which we could not be justified by the law of Moses. Acts xiii. 39.

5. Q. Will our own works justify us?
A. No: by the deeds of the law shall no flesh be justified. Rom. iii. 20.

6. Q. Would the ceremonial sacrifices justify men?
A. No: they could not make the comers thereunto perfect. Heb. x. 1.

7. Q. Are we justified for the righteousness of Christ?
A. Yes: by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Rom. v. 19.

8. Q. And for that only?
A. Yes: not, having my own righteousness which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ. Philipp. iii. 9.

§ vi.

1. Q. Is the righteousness of Christ imputed to us for our justification?
A. Yes: for he is made of God unto us, righteousness. 1 Cor. i. 30.

2. Q. Did Christ die, that it might be imputed?
A. Yes: He shall justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Isa. liii. 11.

3. Q. Do we owe our justification, then, to the death of Christ?
A. Yes: the blood of Christ, his Son, cleanseth us from all sin. 1 John i. 7.

4. Q. And does that lay the foundation of our salvation?
A. Yes: being justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath. Rom. v. 9.

5. Q. Were we justified from eternity?
A. No: for, in due time, Christ died for the ungodly. Rom. v. 6.

6. Q. If Christ had died, and not risen again, could he have justified us?
A. No: for he was delivered for our offences, and raised again for our justification. Rom. iv. 25.

7. Q. Is that, then, our plea, for peace and pardon?
A. Yes: for who, then, is he that shall condemn? Rom. viii. 34.

8. Q. May we, then, depend upon Christ for righteousness?
A. Yes: in the Lord, I have righteousness and strength. Isa. xlv. 24.

9. Q. Is it become an act of justice in God, to pardon sin, upon the account of Christ's righteousness?
A. Yes: for he is just, and the justifier of him that believeth in Jesus. Rom. iii. 26; and 1 John i. 9.

1. Q. Are we to receive the righteousness of Christ?
A. Yes: We have now received the atonement. Rom. v. 11.

2. Q. Do we receive it, by faith?
A. Yes: through his name, whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. Acts x. 43.

3. Q. And by faith only?
A. Yes: for, being justified by faith, we have peace with God. Rom. v. 1.
4. Q. Did Christ's death satisfy the law?

5. Q. Is that, then, our only righteousness, in the law court?
A. Yes: for we are reconciled to God, by the death of his Son. Rom. v. 10.

6. Q. Do we, by true faith, come up to the terms of the gospel?
A. Yes: believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. Acts xvi. 31.

7. Q. Is that, then, our righteousness, in the gospel court?
A. Yes: for to him that believeth, his faith is counted for righteousness. Rom. iv. 5.

8. Q. Is it, therefore, our life?
A. Yes: for the just shall live by faith. Hab. ii. 4.

9. Q. Is it so, as it applies Christ's righteousness?
A. Yes: this is the name whereby he shall be called, The Lord, our righteousness. Jer. xxiii. 6.

§ VIII.

1. Q. Is justifying faith, a working faith?
A. Yes: for, by works is faith made perfect. James ii. 22.

2. Q. And will that faith justify us, which does not produce good works?
A. No: for, by works, a man is justified, and not by faith only. James ii. 24.

3. Q. Is faith, then, dead, without good works?
A. Yes: for as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works, is dead also. James ii. 26.

4. Q. And, are good works dead, without faith?
A. Yes: for, without faith, it is impossible to please God. Heb. xi. 6.

5. Q. Must they both act together, then?
A. Yes: for that which avails is faith, which works by love. Gal. v. 6.

6. Q. Do we, then, make void the law, through faith?
A. No: God forbid, yea, we establish the law. Rom. iii. 31.

7. Q. Is our faith our own?
A. No: it is not of ourselves, it is the gift of God. Ephes. ii. 8.

8. Q. Are our good works our own?
A. No: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us. Isa. xxvi. 12.

9. Q. Is any room left for boasting then?
SCRIPTURE CATECHISM.

§ i.

1. Q. Are all believers God's children?

2. Q. Are they so, by nature?
A. No: we are, by nature, children of wrath. Ephes. ii. 3.

3. Q. Are they so, by adoption?
A. Yes: we receive the adoption of sons. Gal. iv. 5.

4. Q. Do they deserve to be made God's children?
A. No: how shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land? Jer. iii. 19.

5. Q. Are they altogether unworthy of such a favour?
A. Yes: I am no more worthy to be called thy son. Luke xv. 19.

6. Q. Is it bestowed upon them, notwithstanding their unworthiness?
A. Yes: I will be a Father to you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. 2 Cor. vi. 18.

§ ii.

1. Q. Is adoption an act of God's free grace?
A. Yes: behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God! 1 John iii. 1.

2. Q. Are we, by it, received into the number of God's children?
A. Yes: there shall they be called the children of the living God. Rom. ix. 26.

3. Q. Are we received into that number, upon our believing?
A. Yes: as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. John i. 12.

§ iii.

1. Q. Have we leave to call God Father?
A. Yes: ye have received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. Rom. viii. 15.

2. Q. Does he encourage us to do so?
A. Yes: thou shalt call me, My Father, and shalt not turn away from me. Jer. iii. 19.

3. Q. May we call him so, though we have been prodigals?
A. Yes: I will go to my Father, and will say unto him, Father. Luke xv. 18.

4. Q. May we look upon all good christians as brethren?
A. Yes: for all ye are brethren. Matt. xxiii. 8.

5. Q. And do they all make one family?
A. Yes: of whom the whole family of heaven and earth is named. Ephes. iii. 15.

§ IV.

1. Q. Does God give the nature of his children to all whom he receives into the number?
A. Yes: because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts. Gal. iv. 6.

2. Q. Do they partake of a divine nature?
A. Yes: they are made partakers of a divine nature. 2 Pet. i. 4.

3. Q. Are all God's children born again, then?
A. Yes: they are born, not of the will of man, but of God. John i. 13.

4. Q. Is our adoption, then, to be known by our disposition?
A. Yes: for, in this, the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God. 1 John iii. 10.

§ V.

1. Q. Have all God's adopted children a right to the privileges of children?
A. Yes: they are brought into the glorious liberty of the children of God. Rom. viii. 21.

2. Q. Does their Father pity them?
A. Yes: like as a Father pitieth his children, so the Lord piteth them that fear him. Ps. cxiii. 13.

3. Q. Does he spare them?
A. Yes: as a man spares his own son that serves him. Mal. iii. 17.

4. Q. Does he take care of them?
A. Yes: children, have ye any meat? John xxi. 5.

5. Q. Does he provide for them?
A. Yes: for they that seek the Lord shall want no good thing. Ps. xxxiv. 10.

6. Q. Does he correct them in love?
A. Yes: for what son is he whom the Father chasteneth not? Heb. xii. 7.

7. Q. Does he hear their prayers?
A. Yes: your Father in Heaven will give good things to them that ask him. Matt. vii. 11.

8. Q. Will he give them the inheritance of sons?
A. Yes: it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Luke xii. 32.

9. Q. Will he bring them all safe to it?
A. Yes: He will gather together the children of God that are scattered abroad. John xi. 52.

10. Q. Will Christ present them all to the Father?
A. Yes: behold I and the children which thou hast given me! Heb. ii. 13.

§ VI.

1. Q. Must all God's children reverence him?
A. Yes: if I be a Father, where is my honour? Mal. i. 6.

2. Q. Must they obey him?

3. Q. Must they imitate him?
A. Yes: be ye followers of God, as dear children. Ephes. v. 1.

4. Q. Must they submit to him?
A. Yes: Father, thy will be done. Matt. xxvi. 42.

XXXV. Q. What is sanctification?
A. Sanctification is the work of God's free grace, whereby we are renewed in the whole man after the image of God, and are enabled, more and more, to die unto sin, and live unto righteousness.

§ I.

1. Q. Are all that are justified sanctified?
A. Yes: for Jesus Christ is made both righteousness and sanctification. 1 Cor. i. 30.

2. Q. Is it necessary they should be so?
A. Yes: for, without holiness, no man shall see the Lord. Heb. xii. 14.

3. Q. Did Christ die, that they might be sanctified?
A. Yes: for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified. John xvii. 19.

4. Q. And was this the intention of their election?
   A. Yes: He hath chosen you to salvation, through sanctification. 2 Thess. ii. 13.

§ ii.

1. Q. Is sanctification the work of God?
   A. Yes: we are sanctified by God the Father. Jude v. 1.

2. Q. Is it the work of the Spirit of God?
   A. Yes: it is sanctification of the Spirit. 1 Pet. i. 2.

3. Q. Is it a work of free grace?
   A. Yes: according to his mercy, he saved us, by the washing of regeneration. Tit. iii. 5.

4. Q. Is it a work wrought in us?
   A. Yes: for we are his workmanship, created unto good works. Ephes. ii. 10.

§ iii.

1. Q. Is sanctification something more than being civilized?
   A. Yes: for he is not a Jew, that is one outwardly. Rom. ii. 28.

2. Q. Is it more than being baptized?
   A. Yes: it is not the putting away the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience. 1 Pet. iii. 21.

2. Q. Is it an inward change of the heart?
   A. Yes: we must be renewed in the spirit of our mind. Ephes. iv. 23.

4. Q. Is it the renovation of the whole man?
   A. Yes: if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. 2 Cor. v. 17.

5. Q. Will it suffice to have a new name?
   A. No: for thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Rev. iii. 1.

6. Q. Will it suffice to have a new face?
   A. No: for there are those that have the form of godliness, but deny the power of it. 2 Tim. iii. 5.

7. Q. Must there be a new heart?
   A. Yes: a new heart will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you. Ezek. xxxvi. 26.

8. Q. And a new nature?

9. Q. And a new birth?
   A. Yes: except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. John iii. 3.
§ IV

1. Q. Must we be cleansed from sin?
   A. Yes: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. Ezek. xxxvi. 25.

2. Q. Must we be consecrated to God?
   A. Yes: for we are the temple of God. 1 Cor. iii. 16.

3. Q. Must the law be written in the heart?
   A. Yes: I will put my law in their heart. Heb. viii. 10.

4. Q. Must the understanding be enlightened?
   A. Yes: anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see. Rev. iii. 18.

LIX. Q. Which day of the seven hath God appointed to be the weekly Sabbath?
   A. From the beginning of the world to the resurrection of Christ, God appointed the seventh day of the week to be the weekly Sabbath; and the first day of the week ever since, to continue to the end of the world, which is the Christian Sabbath.

§ I.

1. Q. Was the Sabbath appointed from the beginning of the world?
   A. Yes: God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, when the heavens and the earth were finished. Gen. ii. 1—3.
2. Q. Was it in remembrance of the work of creation?
A. Yes: because that in it he rested from all his work. Gen. ii. 2.

8. Q. Was it observed, before the giving of the law, upon mount Sinai?
A. Yes: for, before that, it was said, To-morrow is the rest of the holy Sabbath to the Lord. Exod. xvi. 23.

4. Q. Was that appointed to be kept on the seventh day of the week?
A. Yes: for he spake of the seventh day on this wise. Heb. iv. 4.

§ II.

1. Q. Was the law of the Sabbath given more particularly to Israel?
A. Yes: I gave them my Sabbath to be a sign between me and them. Ezek. xx. 12.

2. Q. Was it religiously observed among them?
A. Yes: for their enemies did mock at their Sabbaths. Lam. i. 7.

3. Q. Did they sanctify the Sabbath, in solemn assemblies?
A. Yes: Moses of old time is read in the synagogues every Sabbath day. Acts xv. 21.

4. Q. Was the blessing confined to the seventh day?
A. No: for the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it. Exod. xx. 11.

§ III

1. Q. Was the Sabbath to continue in gospel times?
A. Yes: for there remaineth the keeping of a Sabbath to the people of God. Heb. iv. 9. (marg.)

2. Q. Did Christ intend it should continue?
A. Yes: for he said, pray that your flight be not on the Sabbath day. Matt. xxiv. 20.

3. Q. Did he, in order to that, expound the fourth commandment?
A. Yes: for he shewed, that it is lawful to do well upon the Sabbath day. Matt. xii. 12.

4. Q. Is there the same need of Sabbaths now that ever there was?
A. Yes: for I gave them my Sabbaths, that they might know that I am the Lord. Ezek. xx. 12.

§ IV.

1. Q. Is the Sabbath changed, now, to the first day of the week?
A. Yes: for on the first day of the week the disciples came together to break bread. Acts xx. 7.

2. Q. Was it because, on that day of the week, our Lord Jesus rose from the dead?
   A. Yes: for he rose as it began to dawn towards the first day of the week. Matt. xxviii. 1.

3. Q. And because on that day, the Spirit was poured out?
   A. Yes: for that was when the day of Pentecost was fully come. Acts ii. 1.

4. Q. Was it fit there should be an alteration?
   A. Yes: for it shall no more be said, the Lord liveth that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but the Lord liveth that brought them up from the land of the North. Jer. xvi. 14, 15.

§ V.

1. Q. Did the Apostles observe the first day of the week?
   A. Yes: on the first day of the week, let every one lay by. 1 Cor. xvi. 2.

2. Q. Did the primitive church call it the Lord’s day?
   A. Yes: I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s day. Rev. i. 10.

3. Q. In a thing of this nature, ought we to acquiesce?
   A. Yes: for, if any man will be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God. 1 Cor. xi. 16.

LX. Q. How is the Sabbath to be sanctified?
   A. The Sabbath is to be sanctified by a holy resting all that day, even from such worldly employments and recreations as are lawful on other days; and spending the whole time in the public and private exercises of God’s worship, except so much as is to be taken up in the works of necessity and mercy.

§ I.

1. Q. Must we rest on the Sabbath day?
   A. Yes: six days may work be done, but in the seventh is the Sabbath of rest. Exod. xxxi. 15.

2. Q. Must we rest from worldly employments?
   A. Yes: ye shall hallow the Sabbath day, to do no work therein. Jer. xvii. 24.

3. Q. And from recreations?
4. Q. Is this to signify our being dead to this world? A. Yes: for he that is entered into his rest has ceased from his own works. Heb. iv. 10.

5. Q. And to awaken us to think of leaving it? A. Yes: for here we have no continuing city. Heb. xiii. 14.

6. Q. Must this rest be dedicated to God? A. Yes: It is a holy day, a Sabbath of rest to the Lord. Exod. xxxv. 2.

§ II.

1. Q. Must we spend time, on that day in the public exercises of God's worship? A. Yes: for it is a holy convocation. Lev. xxiii. 3.

2. Q. Must we do so, every Sabbath, as we have opportunity? A. Yes: from one Sabbath to another shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the Lord. Isa. lxvi. 23.

3. Q. And must we not absent ourselves from public worship? A. No: not forsaking the assembling of yourselves together. Heb. x. 25.

4. Q. Must we spend time, on that day in the private exercises of religion? A. Yes: it is the Sabbath of the Lord, in all your dwellings. Lev. xxiii. 3.

5. Q. Did the disciples of Christ thus spend the first Lord's day? A. Yes: for, on the first day of the week, the disciples were assembled. John xx. 19.

§ III.

1. Q. Must we prepare for the Sabbath day beforehand? A. Yes: it was the preparation, and the Sabbath drew on. Luke xxiii. 54.

2. Q. Must the Sabbath be a day of holy joy? A. Yes: we will rejoice and be glad in it. Ps. cxviii. 24.

3. Q. Must it be a day of praise? A. Yes: the Psalm for the Sabbath day begins, "It is a good thing to give thanks to the Lord." Ps. xcii. 1.

4. Q. Must we be spiritual in the duties of the day? A. Yes: I was in the spirit on the Lord's day. Rev. i. 10.

5. Q. And must we take pleasure in them? A. Yes: call the Sabbath a delight. Isa. lviii. 13.

§ IV.

1. Q. Are works of mercy and charity proper for a Sabbath day? A. Yes: ought not this woman to be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day? Luke xiii. 16.
2. Q. And may works of necessity be done on that day?
A. Yes: do not you, on the Sabbath, lead your ox, or your ass to watering? Luke xiii. 13.

LXI. Q. What is forbidden in the fourth commandment?
A. The fourth commandment forbiddeth the omission, or careless performance, of the duties required; and the profaning the day, by idleness, or doing that which is in itself sinful, or by unnecessary thoughts, words or works, about our worldly employments or recreations.

1. Q. Do we profane the Sabbath if we neglect the Sabbath work?
2. Q. Or if we perform carelessly?
A. Yes: ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick. Mal. i. 13.
3. Q. Or if we be weary of it?
A. Yes: they say, when will the Sabbath be gone? Amos viii. 5.
4. Q. Or if we idle away Sabbath time?
A. Yes; why stand ye here all the day idle? Matt. xx. 6.
5. Q. And much more if we do that which is, in itself, sinful?
A. Yes: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. Ezek. xxiii. 38.

§11.
1. Q. Do we profane the Sabbath by violating the Sabbath rest?
A. Yes: What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the Sabbath day? Neh. xiii. 17.
2. Q. May we not buy and sell, on that day?
A. No: make not my father's house, a house of merchandise. John ii. 16.
3. Q. May we not work harvest work on that day?
A. No: in earing time, and in harvest, thou shalt rest. Exod. xxxiv. 21.
4. Q. May we not, however, think, and speak at our pleasure, on that day?
A. No: not doing thine own ways, nor speaking thine own words. Isa. lviii. 13.

§III.

1. Q. Was he punished, that gathered sticks, on the Sabbath?
A. Yes: they stoned him with stones, that he died. Numb. xv. 36.

2. Q. Are nations, sometimes punished, for Sabbath profanation?
A. Yes: if ye will not hallow the Sabbath day, I will kindle a fire in the gates of Jerusalem. Jer. xvii. 27.

3. Q. Is the contempt of the Sabbath, a contempt of God?
A. Yes: this man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day. John ix. 16.

LXII. Q. What are the reasons annexed to the fourth commandment?
A. The reasons annexed to the fourth commandment are, God's allowing us six days of the week for our own employments, his challenging a special propriety in the seventh, his own example, and his blessing the Sabbath day.

§I.

1. Q. Has God allowed us six days of the week?
A. Yes: six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work. Exod. xx. 9.

2. Q. Has he reserved but one day in seven for himself?
A. Yes: for he hath not made us to serve with an offering, nor wearied us with increase. Isa. xliii. 23.

3. Q. Does he claim a special property in the seventh day?
A. Yes: it is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. Exod. xx. 10.

4. Q. Has our Lord Jesus a property in it?
A. Yes: for the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath. Mark ii. 28.

5. Q. Ought we not, therefore, to devote it to his service?
A. Yes: for, will a man rob God? Mal. iii. 8.

§II.

1. Q. Did God, the Creator, set us an example of Sabbath rest?
A. Yes: for the seventh day he rested and was refreshed. Exod. xxxi. 17,
2. Q. Did God, the Redeemer, set us an example of Sabbath work?
   A. Yes: for, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day. Luke iv. 16.

3. Q. And, has he given us encouragement in the work of the Christian Sabbath?
   A. Yes: for, when they were assembled on the first day of the week, Jesus stood in the midst. John xx. 19.

§III

1. Q. Has God blessed the Sabbath day, and so put an honour upon it?
   A. Yes: the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it. Exod. xx. 11.

2. Q. Is it not an ill thing, then, for us, to put a slight upon it?
   A. Yes: as they do that despise the holy things, and profane the Sabbath. Ezek xxii. 8.

3. Q. Has God appointed it to be a day of blessing to us?
   A. Yes: there will I come to thee, and will bless thee. Exod. xx. 24.

4. Q. Are not they enemies to themselves then that neglect it?
   A. Yes: they forsake their own mercy. Jonah ii. 8.

LXIII. Q. Which is the fifth commandment?
   A. The fifth commandment is, Honour thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

§I.

1. Q. Do the six last commandments concern our duty to our neighbour?
   A. Yes: for, this is his commandment, that we love one another. 1 John iii. 23.

2. Q. And must we mind that as well as our duty to God?
   A. Yes: providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but in the sight of men. 2 Cor. viii. 21.

2. Q. And are we concerned to be very careful in the second table duties?
   A. Yes: that the name of God, and his doctrine, be not blasphemed. 1 Tim vi. 1.

4. Q. Will our devotions be acceptable without this?
A. No: When ye make many prayers I will not hear, for your hands are full of blood. Isa. i. 15.

§ II.
1. Q. Is religion toward God a branch of universal righteousness?
A. Yes: render to God the things that are God's. Matt. xxii. 21.

3. Q. Must we mourn greatly for sin?
   A. Yes: Peter went out and wept bitterly. Matt. xxvi. 75.

4. Q. Must we mourn after a godly sort?
   A. Yes: ye were made sorry after a godly manner. 2 Cor. vii. 9.

5. Q. Must we mourn for sin with an eye to Christ?
   A. Yes: they shall look on him whom they have pierced, and mourn. Zech. xii. 10.

§ VI.

1. Q. Must we hate sin?
   A. Yes: I hate every false way. Ps. cxix. 128.

2. Q. Must we loathe ourselves because of sin?

3. Q. Must we be ashamed of ourselves before God?
   A. Yes: I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God. Ezra ix. 6.

4. Q. And must we humble ourselves greatly in his presence?
   A. Yes: as the publican that stood afar off, and would not lift up so much as his eyes to heaven. Luke xviii. 13.

§ VII.

1. Q. Must we confess our sins?
   A. Yes: for, he that covereth his sins shall not prosper. Prov. xxviii. 13.

2. Q. And must we aggravate them?
   A. Yes: I have sinned against Heaven, and before thee. Luke xv. 18.

3. Q. And must we judge ourselves because of them?
   A. Yes: if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. 1 Cor. xi. 31.

4. Q. And must we cry, earnestly to God, for pardon, in the blood of Christ?
   A. Yes: God be merciful to me, a sinner, Luke xviii. 13.

§ VIII.

1. Q. Must we turn from sin?
   A. Yes: repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions. Ezek. xviii. 30.

2. Q. From our own sin?
   A. Yes: return ye, now, every one, from his evil way. Jer. xviii. 11.

* Mr. Henry here, adopted the marginal reading "ye sorrowed according to God," but the Editor supposes the reading of the text sufficiently correct and plain, and preferred retaining it.
3. Q. And must we turn to God?
   A. Yes: if thou wilt return, O Israel, return unto me. Jer. iv. 1.

4. Q. Are back sliders invited to return?

5. Q. And should they accept the invitation?
   A. Yes: behold, we come unto thee, for thou art the Lord, our God. Jer. iii. 22.

1. Q. In repentance, must there be a change of the mind?

2. Q. Must there be a change of the way?
   A. Yes: cease to do evil, learn to do well. Is. i. 16, 17.

3. Q. Must there be a full resolution against all sin?
   A. Yes: Ephraim shall say, what have I to do any more with idols? Hos. xiv. 8.

4. Q. And a full resolution of new obedience?
   A. Yes: the Lord our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey. Josh. xxiv. 24.

5. Q. And must we be serious in our endeavours accordingly?
   A. Yes: bring forth, therefore, fruits meet for repentance. Matt. iii. 8.

LXXXVIII. Q. What are the outward means whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of redemption?

A. The outward and ordinary means whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of redemption, are his ordinances, especially the word, sacraments, and prayer; all which are made effectual to the elect for salvation.

§ I.

1. Q. Does Christ communicate the benefits of redemption?
   A. Yes: for, of his fulness have all we received. John i. 16.

2. Q. Does he ordinarily communicate them by means?
   A. Yes: I will, for this, be inquired of. Ezek. xxxvi. 37.

3. Q. Is he tied to those means?
   A. No: for, the Spirit, as the wind, bloweth where it listeth. John iii. 8.

4. Q. But are we tied to the use of them?
   A. Yes: where I record my name, I will come to thee, and will bless thee. Exod. xx. 24.
5. Q. Are the ordinances the outward and ordinary means of grace?
   A. Yes: I the Lord do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them. Ezek. xxxvii. 28.

§ II.

1. Q. Are the words, sacraments, and prayer, the great gospel ordinances?
   A. Yes: then they that gladly received his word were baptized, and they continued stedfastly in the apostle’s doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. Acts ii. 41, 42.

2. Q. Is singing of psalms also a gospel ordinance?
   A. Yes: speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs. Ephes. v. 19.

3. Q. Is it appointed for our own consolation?

4. Q. And for mutual instruction?
   A. Yes: teaching and admonishing one another in psalms. Col. iii. 16.

5. Q. And for God’s glory?
   A. Yes: singing with grace in your heart to the Lord. Col. iii. 16.

§ III.

1. Q. Has Christ appointed ministers of the gospel?
   A. Yes: He hath given pastors and teachers, for the edifying of the body of Christ. Ephes. iv. 11, 12.

2. Q. Is the administration of ordinances committed to them?
   A. Yes: for they are the stewards of the mysteries of God. 1 Cor. iv. 1.

3. Q. And must they attend to that service?
   A. Yes: we will give ourselves to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. Acts vi. 4.

§ IV.

1. Q. Are gospel ordinances made effectual to all for salvation?
   A. No: for, with many of them, God was not well pleased. 1 Cor. x. 5.

2. Q. But are they made effectual to the elect?
   A. Yes: as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. Acts xiii. 48.

LXXXIX. Q. How is the word made effectual to salvation?
A. The Spirit of God maketh the reading, but especially the preaching of the word, an effectual means of convincing and converting sinners, and of building them up in holiness and comfort, through faith, unto salvation.

1. Q. Is the word to be read by us?
A. Yes: I charge you that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren. 1 Thess. v. 27.

2. Q. Is it to be read in solemn assemblies?
A. Yes: Moses is read in the synagogues every Sabbath day. Acts xv. 21.

3. Q. Is it profitable to expound the scriptures?
A. Yes: they that read in the law of God, gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. Neh. viii. 8.

4. Q. Is the word of God to be preached?
A. Yes: preach the word, be instant in season, and out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort. 2 Tim. iv. 2.

5. Q. Is it the duty of all to hear the word?
A. Yes: he that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. Rev. ii. 7.

6. Q. Will the bare reading and hearing of the word profit?
A. No: the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. 2 Cor. iii. 6.

§ ii.

1. Q. But is the reading and hearing of the word the ordinary means of convincing sinners?
A. Yes: for it is mighty through God, to the pulling down of strong holds. 2 Cor. x. 4.

2. Q. And of startling the secure?
A. Yes: by them is thy servant warned. Ps. xix. 11.

3. Q. Is it the ordinary means of conversion?
A. Yes: if the prophets had stood in my counsel, they should have turned people from their evil way. Jer. xxiii. 22.

4. Q. And has it been the conversion of many?
A. Yes: when the law of truth was in his mouth, he did turn many away from iniquity. Mal. ii. 6.

5. Q. Is it the ordinary means of working faith?
A. Yes: for, faith cometh by hearing. Rom. x. 17.

6. Q. And of the renewing of the heart?
A. Yes: for, the seed is the word of God. Luke viii. 11.

7. Q. And of reforming the life?
A. Yes: by the words of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer. Ps. xvii. 4.

§ III.

1. Q. Is the reading and hearing of the word needful to those who are regenerate?
A. Yes: for, they are nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine. 1 Tim. iv. 6.

2. Q. Is it a means of building them up in holiness?
A. Yes: it is for the perfecting of the saints. Ephes. iv. 12.

3. Q. Will it furnish them for all good?
A. Yes: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished to all good works. 2 Tim. iii. 17.

4. Q. Will it fortify them against all evil?
A. Yes: for, the sword of the Spirit is the word of God. Ephes. vi. 17.

5. Q. Is it a means of building them up in comfort?
A. Yes: that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Rom. xv. 4.

§ IV.

1. Q. Does the Spirit of God make the word effectual for all these good purposes?
A. Yes: when the hand of the Lord was with them, a great number believed, and turned to the Lord. Acts xi. 21.

2. Q. Is it effectual through faith unto salvation?
A. Yes: it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. Rom. i. 16.

3. Q. Is it not a great mercy, then, to have plenty of the word of God?
A. Yes: blessed is the people that know the joyful sound. Ps. lxxxix. 15.

4. Q. And should we not welcome those that bring it?
A. Yes: blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Ps. cxviii. 26.

XC. Q. How is the word to be read and heard, that it may become effectual to salvation?
A. That the word may become effectual to salvation, we must attend thereunto with diligence, preparation, and prayer, receive it with faith and love, lay it up in our hearts, and practice it in our lives.
§ I.
1. Q. Must we read the word of God with seriousness?
A. Yes: we must give attendance to reading. 1 Tim. iv. 13.
2. Q. And not read it as a common book?
A. No: it is not a vain thing, for it is your life. Deut. xxxii. 47.

§ II.
1. Q. Must we be diligent to hear the word?
A. Yes: watching daily at wisdom’s gates, waiting at the posts of her doors. Prov. viii. 34.
2. Q. Must we prepare for hearing it?
A. Yes: lay aside all malice, and guile, and hypocrisy, and filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness. 1 Pet. ii. 1, and James i. 21.
3. Q. Must we come to it with a spiritual appetite?
A. Yes: as new born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word. 1 Pet. ii. 2.
4. Q. Must we set ourselves to receive it?
A. Yes: as Mary sat at Jesus’ feet to hear his word. Luke x. 39.
5. Q. Must we bow our souls before it?
A. Yes: speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth. 1 Sam. iii. 9.
6. Q. Must we diligently hearken to it?
A. Yes: be swift to hear. James i. 19.

§ III.
1. Q. Must we hear the word with reverence?
A. Yes: when Ezra opened the book, all the people stood up. Neh. viii. 5.
2. Q. Must we hear it with care?
3. Q. And with meekness?
A. Yes: receive, with meekness, the ingrafted word. James i. 21.
4. Q. And with delight?
A. Yes: how sweet are thy words unto my taste! Ps. cxix. 103.
5. Q. And with a holy fear?
A. Yes: we must tremble at the word. Isa. lxvi. 2.
6. Q. Must we receive it, as the word of men?
A. No: but as it is, in truth, the word of God. 1 Thess. ii. 13.

§ IV.
1. Q. Must we take heed of sleeping under the word?
A. Yes: could ye not watch, with me, one hour? Matt. xxvi. 40.

2. Q. Must we pray for a blessing upon the word?
   A. Yes: open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. Ps. cxix. 18.

3. Q. Must we receive the word with faith?
   A. Yes: for it will not profit if it be not mixed with faith. Heb. iv. 2.

4. Q. Must we receive men's words, with an implicit faith?
   A. No: believe not every spirit, but try the spirits. 1 John iv. 1.

5. Q. But, must we receive God's word, with an implicit faith?
   A. Yes: for every word of God is pure. Prov. xxx. 5.

6. Q. Must we receive it with love?
   A. Yes: I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food. Job xxi. 12.

§v.

1. Q. Must we remember the word we read and hear?
   A. Yes: lest, at any time, we let it slip. Heb. ii. 1.

2. Q. Must we lay it up in our hearts?
   A. Yes: thy word have I hid in my heart. Ps. cxix. 11.

3. Q. Must we meditate on it?
   A. Yes: in that law doth he meditate day and night. Ps. i. 2.

4. Q. Must we practice it in our lives?
   A. Yes: be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only. James i. 22.

5. Q. Will it suffice to hear, though we do not practice?
   A. No: if ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. John xiii. 17.

XCI. Q. How do the sacraments become effectual means of salvation?

A. The sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not from any virtue in them, or in him that doth administer them; but only by the blessing of Christ, and the working of his Spirit in them that by faith receive them.

1. Q. Do the sacraments certainly save all that partake of them?
A. No: they who were rejected of Christ could say, we have eaten and drunk in thy presence. Luke xiii. 26.

2. Q. Are they, then, effectual, by any virtue, in themselves?
A. No: for bodily exercise profiteth little. 1 Tim. iv. 8.

3. Q. Do they, of themselves, confer grace?
A. No: for if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision. Rom. ii. 25.

4. Q. Is the thing signified of greater consequence than the sign?
A. Yes: for circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter. Rom. ii. 29.

§ II.

1. Q. Does the efficacy of the sacraments depend upon the minister?
A. No: for, who is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed? 1 Cor. iii. 5.

2. Q. Does the goodness of the minister invigorate the sacrament?
A. No: for Philip baptized Simon, who yet was in the gall of bitterness. Acts viii. 13, 23.

3. Q. Does the badness of the minister invalidate the sacrament?
A. No: for Judas was numbered with us, and obtained part of this ministry. Acts i. 17.

§ III.

1. Q. Does the efficacy of sacraments depend upon the blessing of Christ?

2. Q. And upon the working of the Spirit?
A. Yes: for it is the Spirit that quickeneth. John vi. 63.

3. Q. And are they effectual to those only who by faith receive them?
A. Yes: he that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved. Mark xvi. 16.

XCII. Q. What is a sacrament?
A. A sacrament is an holy ordinance instituted by Christ; wherein, by sensible signs, Christ, and the benefits of the new covenant, are represented, sealed, and applied to believers.

§ I.

1. Q. Is a sacrament a holy ordinance?
A. Yes: for we minister about holy things. 1 Cor. ix. 13.
2. Q. Must they, therefore, be holy that attend them?
A. Yes: be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord. Is. lii. 11.
3. Q. Are sacraments instituted by Christ?
4. Q. May men institute sacraments?
A. No: Jeroboam, that ordained a feast which he had devised of his own heart, sinned, and made Israel to sin. 1 Kings xii. 33.

§ II.

1. Q. Is there, in a sacrament, an outward and visible sign?
A. Yes: behold the blood of the covenant. Exod. xxiv. 8.
2. Q. Is there an inward and spiritual grace?
A. Yes: for that rock was Christ. 1 Cor. x. 4.
3. Q. Are outward signs of use to inform our understanding?
A. Yes: for, in them, Christ is evidently set forth crucified among us. Gal. iii. 1.
4. Q. Are they of use to refresh our memories?
A. Yes: these stones shall be for a memorial. Josh. iv. 7.
5. Q. And to stir up our affections?
A. Yes: they shall look on him whom they have pierced, and mourn. Zech. xii. 10.
6. Q. Are they of use to transmit the things of God from generation to generation?
A. Yes: for your children shall ask you, what mean you by this service? Exod. xii. 26.

§ III.

1. Q. Is a sacrament a seal?
A. Yes: circumcision was a seal of the righteousness which is by faith. Rom. iv. 11.
2. Q. A seal of the covenant?
3. Q. Is a sacrament an oath?
A. Yes: they entered into an oath to walk in God's law. Neh. x. 29.
4. Q. Is it an encouragement to our faith?
A. Yes: reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side, and be not faithless, but believing. John xx. 27.
5. Q. Is it an engagement to obedience?
A. Yes: that henceforth we should not serve sin. Rom. vi. 6.
6. Q. Is Christ applied to us in sacraments?
A. Yes: as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ. Gal. iii. 27.

7. Q. Are the benefits of the new covenant applied to us?
   A. Yes: to be a God to thee, and to thy seed after thee. Gen. xvii. 7.

XCIII. Q. Which are the sacraments of the New Testament?
   A. The sacraments of the New Testament are, Baptism, and the Lord’s Supper.

§ 1:

1. Q. Were there sacraments in innocency?

2. Q. Were there sacraments under the law?
   A. Yes: for the law had a shadow of good things to come. Heb. x. 1.

3. Q. Was circumcision a sacrament?
   A. Yes: he received the sign of circumcision. Rom. iv. 11.

4. Q. Was the passover a sacrament?
   A. Yes: Christ our passover is sacrificed for us. 1 Cor. v. 7.

§ II.

1. Q. Have we sacraments now, under the gospel?
   A. Yes: for unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them. Heb. iv. 2.

2. Q. Are Baptism and the Lord’s Supper our two sacraments?
   A. Yes: for we are baptized into one body, and all drink into one spirit. 1 Cor. xii. 13.

3. Q. May men add any more sacraments?
   A. No: add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee. Prov. xxx. 6.

XCIV. Q. What is Baptism?
   A. Baptism is a sacrament, wherein the washing with water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, doth signify and seal our ingrafting into Christ, and partaking of the benefits of the covenant of grace, and our engagement to be the Lord’s.

§ I.

1. Q. Is washing with water the outward sign in Baptism?
A. Yes: I am come baptizing with water. John i. 31.

2. Q. Is that well done by sprinkling?
A. Yes: for so shall he sprinkle many nations. Isa. lli. 15; Ezek. xxxvi. 25.

3. Q. Is that sign significant?
A. Yes: if ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified. 1 Cor. vi. 11.

4. Q. But, is the outward sign alone sufficient?
A. No: baptism saves us, not as it is the putting away the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God. 1 Pet. iii. 21.

§ ii.

1. Q. Must Baptism be in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost?
A. Yes: go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Matt. xxviii. 19.

2. Q. And not in the minister's name?
A. No: were ye baptized in the name of Paul? 1 Cor. i. 13.

3. Q. Is it, therefore, one?
A. Yes: for there is one Lord, one faith, one baptism. Ephes. iv. 5.

§ iii.

A. Yes: there were added to the church daily. Acts ii. 47.

2. Q. Are we thereby entered into Christ's school?

3. Q. And listed under his banner?
A. Yes: as good soldiers of Jesus Christ. 2 Tim. ii. 3.

§ iv.

1. Q. Is Baptism a seal of our ingrafting into Christ?
A. Yes: for being baptized into Jesus Christ, we are baptized into his death. Rom. vi. 3.

2. Q. And of our partaking of the benefits of the new covenant?
A. Yes: be baptized for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. Acts ii. 38.

3. Q. And of our engagement to be the Lord's?
A. Yes: I entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine. Ezek. xvi. 8.

4. Q. Is the covenant sealed in the Baptism, a mutual covenant?
A. Yes: ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. Jer. xxx. 22.
5. Q. And for the supply of the poor and needy?
A. Yes: that he will abundantly bless our provision, and satisfy our poor with bread. Ps. cxxxii. 15.

CV. Q. What do we pray for in the fifth petition?
A. In the fifth petition (which is, And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, we pray that God, for Christ's sake, would freely pardon all our sins; which we are the rather encouraged to ask, because by his grace we are enabled from the heart to forgive others.

1. Q. Are our sins our debts to God?
A. Yes: there was a certain creditor that had two debtors, &c. Luke vii. 41.

2. Q. Are they great debts?

3. Q. Can we discharge these debts ourselves?
A. No: we have nothing to pay. Luke vii. 42.

4. Q. Are we liable to the prison of Hell then?
A. Yes: not to depart thence till we have paid the last mite. Luke xii. 58, 59.

5. Q. Is it possible to obtain the forgiveness of this debt?
A. Yes: there is forgiveness with thee. Ps. cxxx. 4.

1. Q. Are we to pray for the forgiveness of these sins?
A. Yes: enter not into judgment with thy servant, O Lord. Ps. cxlili. 2.

2. Q. And to pray earnestly for it?
A. Yes: for thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity. Ps. xxv. 11.

3. Q. Must we plead God's mercies?
A. Yes: according to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions. Ps. li. 1.

4. Q. And Christ's merits?
A. Yes: through the redemption that is in Jesus. Rom. iii. 24.

5. Q. Must we pray for it every day?
A. Yes: when we pray, give us our daily bread, we must pray, forgive us our debts.
§ III.
1. Q. Must we pray that God would ease us of the burthen of sin?
A. Yes: take away all iniquity. Hos. xiv. 2.
2. Q. And that he would cleanse us from the filth of sin?
A. Yes: wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity. Ps. li. 2.
3. Q. And cure us of the wounds of sin?
A. Yes: heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee. Ps. xli. 2.
4. Q. And save us from the punishment of sin?
A. Yes: I will say unto God, do not condemn me. Job x. 2.

§ IV.
1. Q. Must we pray to God to give us that grace which will qualify us for pardon?
A. Yes: for Christ is exalted to give repentance and remission. Acts v. 31.
2. Q. And that he would give us the comfort of our pardon?
A. Yes: make me to hear joy and gladness. Ps. lii. 8.
3. Q. And must we, in order hereunto, be particular in confessing sin?

§ V.
1. Q. Must we forgive those who have provoked us?
A. Yes: forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any. Col. iii. 13.
2. Q. Must we bear them no malice?
A. No: grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned. James v. 9.
3. Q. Must we be ready to be reconciled to them?
A. Yes: when ye stand praying, forgive if ye have aught against any. Mark xi. 25.
4. Q. Should we be merciful to those that we have advantage against?
A. Yes: thou shouldest have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, as I had pity on thee. Matt. xviii. 33.
5. Q. Is this required to qualify us for the pardon of sin?
A. Yes: if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. Matt. vi. 14.
6. Q. Will God forgive those that do not forgive?
A. No: if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive yours. Matt. vi. 15.

CVI. Q. What do we pray for in the sixth petition?
3. Q. Do they do it zealously?
   A. Yes: for they are a flaming fire. Ps. civ. 4.
4. Q. Do they do it with an eye to God?
   A. Yes: for they always behold the face of our Father.
   Matt. xviii. 10.
5. Q. And are we to pray that God’s will may so be done on earth?
   A. Yes: that the kingdoms of this world may become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ. Rev. xi. 15.

CIV. Q. What do we pray for in the fourth petition?
   A. In the fourth petition (which is, Give us this day our daily bread,) we pray, that of God’s free gift we may receive a competent portion of the good things of this life, and enjoy his blessings with them.

§ I.
1. Q. Are we to pray for the good things of this life?
   A. Yes: for the Lord is for the body. 1 Cor. vi. 13.
2. Q. Must we go to God for them?
   A. Yes: for he giveth to all life and breath, and all things.
   Acts xvii. 25.
3. Q. Must we go to him for the comfort of them?
   A. Yes: for he gives us richly all things to enjoy. 1 Tim. vi. 17.
4. Q. Do we deserve the good things of this life?
   A. No: we are less than the least of all God’s mercies.
   Gen. xxxii. 10.
5. Q. Must we, therefore, beg them of God as a free gift?

§ II.
1. Q. Are we to pray for riches?
   A. No: lest we be full, and say, who is the Lord? Prov. xxx. 9.
2. Q. Are we to pray for dainties?
   A. No: be not desirous of dainties, for they are deceitful meat. Prov. xxiii. 3.
3. Q. Are we to be content with such a competent portion of these things as God sees fit for us?
A. Yes: having food and raiment, let us be therewith content. 1 Tim. vi. 8.

4. Q. Are we to pray for that?
A. Yes: feed me with food convenient for me. Prov. xxx. 8.

5. Q. And need we desire any more?
A. No: if God will be with me and keep me in the way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come to my Heavenly Father's house in peace, then the Lord shall be my God. Gen. xxviii. 20, 21.

§ iii.

2. Q. Do they do it readily?
3. Q. Do they do it zeallyly?
A. Yes: for they are a flaming fire. Ps. civ. 4.

4. Q. Do they do it with an eye to God?
A. Yes: for they always behold the face of our Father. Matt. xviii. 10.

5. Q. And are we to pray that God's will may so be done on earth?
A. Yes: that the kingdoms of this world may become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ. Rev. xi. 15.

CIV. Q. What do we pray for in the fourth petition?
A. In the fourth petition (which is, Give us this day our daily bread,) we pray, that of God's free gift we may receive a competent portion of the good things of this life, and enjoy his blessings with them.

§ i.

1. Q. Are we to pray for the good things of this life?
A. Yes: for the Lord is for the body. 1 Cor. vi. 13.

2. Q. Must we go to God for them?
A. Yes: for he giveth to all life and breath, and all things. Acts xvii. 25.

3. Q. Must we go to him for the comfort of them?
A. Yes: for he gives us richly all things to enjoy. 1 Tim. vi. 17.

4. Q. Do we deserve the good things of this life?
A. No: we are less than the least of all God's mercies. Gen. xxxii. 10.

5. Q. Must we, therefore, beg them of God as a free gift?

§ ii.

1. Q. Are we to pray for riches?
A. No: lest we be full, and say, who is the Lord? Prov. xxx. 9.

2. Q. Are we to pray for dainties?
A. No: be not desirous of dainties, for they are deceitful meat. Prov. xxiii. 3.

3. Q. Are we to be content with such a competent portion of these things as God sees fit for us?
A. Yes: having food and raiment, let us be therewith content. 1 Tim. vi. 8.

4. Q. Are we to pray for that?
A. Yes: feed me with food convenient for me. Prov. xxx. 8.

5. Q. And need we desire any more?
A. No: if God will be with me and keep me in the way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, so that I come to my Heavenly Father's house in peace, then the Lord shall be my God. Gen. xxviii. 20, 21.

1. Q. Are we to pray each day for the bread of the day?
A. Yes: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Matt. vi. 34.
